Bronx Raiders Meet Flashes

The Bronx Raiders with a strong team composed of Rudy Jacob, Victor Jaffee, John Bailey, Bob McDonald, Lyle Gittens and Fitz Pelham meet the powerful Brooklyn Flashes Saturday night at the Park Arena, 169th St. and Park Ave.

The Flashes include Haldane King brother of Dolly, former LIU great; Criblow, Aaron Gates, Charley Davidson and Champ Berry.

Pioneers Win Met. AAU Cross Country Run Title

The Pioneer Club's cross country team won the Metropolitan AAU championship at Van Cortlandt Park, Sunday, taking sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth places to win the team title and to dethrone the New York A. C. which won the championship in 1945.

Scorers for the winners were John Alyson, Henry Walsh, Donald Cordialdi and Lou White. Tom Quinn of the New York A. C. won the six-mile championship run.

Wally Triplett Star As Penn State Wins

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., (NNPA)—Wally Triplett, Penn State star, intercepted a pass on the goal line in the game which the Nittany Lions won last Saturday from Temple, 26 to 0.

Dan Phipps, a Temple end, had almost caught a pass from Paul Dubenetsky, a back when Triplett jumped in and virtually snatched it out of his hands.
